

WILL HAVE URBAN ROAD

But It May Not Come For Two Years—The Hearing In Augusta Wednesday

(By Sid Cullen)

That Rockland will have a suburban road within the next three years is a certainty, according to Stillman E. Woodman, chairman of the State Highway Commission, who made the statement to members of the Rockland City Council, City Manager Farnsworth and the writer in a meeting at Augusta Wednesday morning.

Where it would be built is something else again. Mr. Woodman did say that if the Commission were to vote on the location of the road that day, he knew how he would vote. He did not reveal in which direction his leanings extended.

When asked whether or not the wishes of a few might outweigh those of the rest of the community, Mr. Stillman did not care to answer for publication but repeated his former statement, that the road would be built.

The question seemed to disturb the chairman of the Commission, Cornelius J. Russell of Bangor, Democratic member of the Commission, instantly made it clear that as far as he was concerned the wishes of majority of people in Rockland would be considered when the time comes to make the decision. On the other end of the meeting table, the third member of the commission, Lloyd B. Morton of Farmington seemed to be in agreement with Russell but did not make a statement, only nodding what might have been easily taken as agreement with Russell.

The Commission's explanation of the situation, as to the time of building the road was that, of the total of $1,000,000 allotted in Maine for urban road construction, only a portion of it was available each year and must be matched by State funds which are not yet earned through taxes.

Woodman said that had Rockland people agreed on the location of the road from the start, it would now be built, or under construction. The whole matter came back again to what was meant by a disagreement. No answer on this point as it seemed a tender one.

City Manager Farnsworth recalled that in a public meeting a year or more ago, the people present followed Justice Frank A. Threl's suggestion and gave the City Council a vote of confidence which allowed them to make the decision and pass it along to the Highway Commission. Farnsworth also stated that all persons present were not agreeable to the Broadway location when they entered the meeting and that there was about an even break in supporters of the route along Broadway or west of Broadway. They left the meeting with the matter in the Council's hands.

The Council's recommendations have time and again been made known to the Commission—also petitions have been forwarded against the Broadway route, and which were presented by Alan Bird to the City Clerk, according to Farnsworth.

Commissioner Russell asked whether or not the opposition to the Broadway route had increased or subsided. Councilman Robert McCarty stated that only a few were opposing it and then only because of their own selfish interests. Later he pointed out that he, too, was a resident of Broadway and had no objection in any way to the road but favored it. He also named several of his neighbors who were also seeking construction as soon as possible.

Councilman Charles E. Bicknell, 2d, identified himself as president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and related that his organization had sent letters to most organizations in the city, asking their support of the Broadway route and that they had received answers heartily supporting it from all but one group, and that one did not reply at all. He listed the groups while the commission's secretary took them down. The list of approving organizations was nearly as long as the original petition of 18 individuals against the route which seems to be holding up the program and causing Stillman Woodman to maintain that all Rockland is not in agreement.

Bicknell asked that a lawyer living on Broadway, not Mr. Bird, has said that he would not give up half his lawn to the new road. He characterized the statement as foolish as the grade stakes placed by engineers when surveying in no way mark the boundaries of the proposed new road. Commission members agreed with him and stated that they frequently run into the same misunderstanding whenever a new road is laid out.

Chairman Gilbert of the Council dropped a point for thought by the Commission when he revealed that names of some of those signing petitions against the route have been found also on petitions from various organizations favoring the route.

Bicknell brought out forcefully that the opposing few on Broadway do not pay all the tax load of the city and that the remainder of the populace is to be considered. He recalled a time when a meeting over parking meters was held in which the present chief opponent of Broadway favored the "little fellow" over the few who opposed their installation. Now, his attitude is to hang with the "little fellow," said Bicknell.

Councilman McLean pointed out that the allotted time was running out and urged immediate action on the project. It was at this point that Woodman assured the Coun-some 200 feet in from the junction of Broadway and Holmes streets on the airport field, with the building running in a southwesterly direction from the junction of the two streets, and extending 435 feet in length.

The building will rest on concrete footings extending below the frost level and reaching up to the window level of the building. Between the footings, walls if you wish, there will be a 6-inch concrete slab which will form the floors.

Windows will be 30 inches in height and will be in wooden sash and frames. Above the windows, will be the new directional glass brick extending to the roof. This material will direct the light upwards to the ceilings of the rooms and allow it to be reflected downward into the classrooms, even across the rooms from the windows.

Floors will be concrete covered with asphalt tile. The north side of the building will have a clear story which will provide light for even the farthest reaches of the rooms.

Heat will be furnished by a steam-vapor system from a heating plant located about in the middle of the structure.

The fan-driven ventilating system will draw air from the classrooms through the sidewall wardrobes, through the clothing and into ducts running the length of the building. Clothing can be thoroughly dried on wet days by this method and still provide air for all classrooms as the air which dries the clothing has already been through the rooms and will be passing to the vents.

Fluorescent lighting will be used throughout the building with the exception of the corridors which will be fitted with the usual incandescent lights. The classroom lights will be arranged to deliver a minimum of 30-foot candles.

The building will have 16 classrooms and two remedial rooms, plus a cafeteria, office space, utility rooms, storage space and teachers' rooms. Accommodations have been provided for more than 500 pupils in the most modern educational building possible.

If I had my life to live again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

THEY ARE ALL GONE
They are all gone into the world of light,
And I alone sit lingering here;
Their very memory is fair and bright,
And my sad thoughts doth clear.
I see them walking in an air of glory,
Whose light doth trample on my days;
My days, which are at best but dull
And hoary,
Mere glimmering and decays.
O Father of eternal life, and all
Created glories under thee!
Resume thy spirit from this world of
Into true liberty.

Naval Reserve Unit

Will Occupy Portion Of Building
At The Coast Guard Base

Chief Boatwain's Mate Alton Brown, officer in charge of the Coast Guard Base, has received information from Coast Guard headquarters in Boston that a portion of the main building at the base will shortly be occupied by a Naval Reserve Unit.

The unit is commanded by Chief Radio Electrician William L. Hall of Friendship and will be chiefly concerned with radio and electronics. Mr. Hall has been recruiting men locally for some time for the inactive Naval Reserve. His Naval service extends back to 1926 and includes active duty during World War 2 from 1942 to the close of hostilities.

The unit will, presumably, be an inactive reserve organization with volunteer attendance at sessions in which instruction will be given in radio and electronics together with actual communications practice.

carried out. Woodman was not talking, other than to say that if they were to vote today he knew how he would vote.

Bicknell states that the Junior Chamber will at once go to work on petitions in favor of the Broadway route.

Whether or not a minority group can control the Commission against the wishes of the "little fellow" remains to be seen as the campaign continues to place the urban road where the people want it and save the taxpayers of Rockland the cost of rebuilding Broadway in the not too far distant future.

[EDITORIAL]

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT—THOMAS E. DEWEY of New York
FOR VICE PRESIDENT—EARL WARREN of California

A ROCKLAND AUTHOR

The current issue of Blue Book Magazine carries special local interest due to the fact that it contains a story by Rev. Kenneth H. Cassens of Rockland. The novelette is entitled "The Bull Dance," described in the prospectus as "a spirited story of life, love and death in the ancient Cretan arena." The story covers six pages and is profusely illustrated. Another story of ancient Crete, by Mr. Cassens, is announced to appear in an early issue of Blue Book, as is warranted by the intensely interesting character of the initial story.

CHAIRMAN STOVER'S ADVICE

The alcohol habit may close the door for young people on "the richest of all rewards," the living of a full life. That is what E. A. Stover, chairman of the Maine Liquor Commission, told the Methodist Leadership Conference. He said the "does not necessarily lie with parents; overall it's the failure of our society to properly educate its citizens of tomorrow as to the scientific facts in relation to habit-forming drugs." The answer is "proper presentation of the facts in our public schools, irrespective of the cost; understanding parents, greatly expanded sports and recreational programs that run the year around, and constructive hobbies." Chairman Stover, who won distinction as a Bath newspaper man, has practical ideas on this subject, without fear of expressing them.

REMOVING THE RUINS

Passers-by watch with daily interest the dismantling of the ruins left by the American Legion fire, and will hail the day when work begins on the two-story structure which is to replace them. It is highly fitting that the State's No. 1 Legion Post should have the fitting home which is now in prospect.

TRYING TO SCARE TRUMAN

Distressed Democrats who foresee defeat at the hands of Dewey and Warren, are doing their level best to scare President Truman off the job that they may nominate Gen. Eisenhower for President. Two things must happen meantime. President Truman must "eat crow" after telling the world that he was going to be nominated and elected; or Gen. Eisenhower must back water on his persistent refusal to be a candidate. We shall soon know.

HOLIDAY CARELESSNESS

Another week-end holiday, embracing Saturday, Sunday and Monday, means undoubtedly, another long list of fatalities. Of what avail to advocate "safety first" when careless citizens fail to heed the terrible list of fatalities born of previous holidays. But do not face death with your eyes wide open.

MORE WOE FOR JAPAN

Unhappy Japan! Two of its cities blown to bits by war-time bombs and now comes one of Nature's catastrophes—an earthquake, which with attendant horrors, has caused an untold loss of life and property. Why war when Nature stands in the doorway with its own destructive weapons?

Baseball Benefit

The Thomaston locals will play Augusta on the Fourth of July, all proceeds to go to the Gordon Williams fund to help this boy back to health. It is hoped that a large crowd will attend this game and give freely for the worthy cause. The game will start at 2.30 and the local club will furnish all baseballs and umpires.

Rockland defeated Rockport 12 to 6 at Rockport last night. Report deferred.

Thomaston 8, Rockland 3

Thomaston knocked down the Pirates Tuesday night to the tune of 8-3, accompanied by 10 Pirates' errors. Though the game had been a long awaited one, it definitely wasn't good baseball and was far from up-to-par play by either team, but especially the Pirates.

The Pirates got their three runs in the first. Ellis opened with a walk and was sacrificed to second by Miller. Anderson singled him in and went to third as the relay home went by Pierpont. Barlow singled to right scoring Anderson. Chisholm reached first, as Lynch bobbled the ball. Barlow going to third. Barlow scored when Lynch dropped the relay from third on Billings' grounder.

In the third, Thomaston scored four runs on two singles and four errors. Ellis dropped Pierpont's fly to left. Lynch singled to left and reached third as Ellis ran by the hit. Pierpont scoring. D. Sawyer reached on an error. H. Sawyer scored Lynch as Anderson erred on his grounder. Robinson singled in the tying and what proved to be the winning run.

Thomaston extended the lead in the fourth. Dana walked. Pierpont singled to right, scoring Dana. D. Sawyer walked. Tweedie tied right, scoring one and H. Sawyer batted in the seventh run.

The final frame saw one more unearned for Thomaston. Robinson reached first on Todd's overthrow at first and went to second. When Biggers hit to LaCrosse, Robinson scored on the overthrow at first.

TALK OF THE TOWN

July 2 at 7:30 p. m.—Alton Hall Blackington Broadcast on "Major-Gen. and Mrs. Knox."

The word "stinkier" used to appear very seldom in reputable newspapers, but is now used by magazine writers, novelists, etc., with the utmost freedom. It refers very distinctly to the wooden-headed cuss who pulled in last night's fire alarm. False alarms are mean and cowardly under any circumstances, but last night the alarm came while the "Fire Department" was using its lights at an emergency operation in Knox Hospital. Any information leading to the detection of the stunk will be reimbursed, and it may mean two years in prison for the offender.

Henry C. Chatto

Death Of Retired Post Office Official Who Had Served Fifty Years

Henry C. Chatto, who climaxed 50 years of faithful postal service as acting postmaster, and was a past commander of the Maine Division, Sons of Union Veterans, died at his residence 52 Gay street Tuesday morning, after a long period of ill health.

Mr. Chatto was born in Blue Hill, Dec. 27, 1869, was educated in the Rockland public schools and worked briefly as a grocery clerk. April 1, 1890, he entered the Post Office service as a letter carrier in which position he served 20 1-2 years before he was transferred to the clerical department. He was appointed assistant postmaster April 1, 1917, and became acting postmaster upon the death of Herbert Blithen.

During the period of the war he had charge of 43 offices in Knox County as central accounting officer. Friends volunteered their support if he would accept the postmastership but he was satisfied to remain on duty as an executive officer.

Mr. Chatto was a past commander of the Maine Department Sons of Veterans, a 32d degree Mason and has passed through the chairs of Knox Lodge, I.O.O.F., and Rockland Encampment.

With his retirement, the Rockland Post Office lost a highly valued official, whose efficiency and courteous service were widely appreciated by patrons of the office.

The outstanding feature of Mr. Chatto's service for the postal office was seen in the new annex to the Post Office building. It was as assistant postmaster that he made the first request for extra floor space, and drawings which he provided resulted in the decision to build in 1936-37.

The demand for a reliable map of city streets in connection with Post Office work prompted Mr. Chatto to draft the city map so extensively in use at the present time. By permission, the Chamber of Commerce used this map in connection with the city directory, and copies are found in the back of all local directories.

Mr. Chatto was a long-time member of the Congregational Church and was an ardent Rotarian until growing infirmities caused his retirement. He was one of the small group of men whose unselfish efforts made possible the purchase of Community Park and its gift in trust to the City for the benefit of the youth of Rockland.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Frances Chatto. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon and were largely attended. Rev. Charles R. Monteith of the Congregational Church officiating. Bearers were George Stewart, Ansel Saunders, Millard Hart and Albert Averill, active and retired post-office employees. Interment was in Achorn cemetery.

Among the beautiful floral tributes were pieces from the Rockland Post Office staff, the Neighborhood Group, the office of the Internal Revenue Dept. in Augusta, where Miss Frances Chatto is employed, also the Augusta Girls' Club and a group of close friends of Miss Chatto.

Lieut. George I. Shaw Assumes Duties As Chief Of Police

George I. Shaw, retired Lieutenant of State Police and former head of the Safety Bureau, takes over Saturday morning as Chief of Police of Rockland.

A native of Richmond, he has lived in Rockland the past several years and was attached to the Rockland and Thomaston barracks until his appointment to the Safety Division in which he served successfully as Sergeant and Lieutenant in charge of the division.

Shaw succeeds George W. Lillenthal who resigned some weeks ago over wage disputes in which the entire police force submitted resignations in protest over the then existing wage scale.

Sergeant Kenneth Jacobson has been serving as Acting Chief in the interim period as Shaw was appointed to his new position prior to the expiration of his period of service which would allow retirement from the State Police.

Wednesday Shaw met the patrolmen of the department and outlined the program which he intends to carry out when he takes office.

UNDER EMERGENCY LIGHTS

A South Carolina girl, Tenants Harbor Summer resident, is recovering from an emergency appendectomy at Knox Hospital this morning which required the aid of Fire Department emergency crews to complete.

Rushed to the hospital at the height of the storm last night, she arrived as the power went off. Doctors Robert Allen, Oram Lawry, Jr., and Charles D. North called the firemen for emergency lighting. Lights were quickly strung from the portable generator units and the operating room lighted and kept in operation for nearly two hours as the surgeons worked.

The firemen were Van E. Russell, Clarence Hooper and Louis Phillips who also strung lights to the wards and corridors during the power failure.

Gardiner will play the Rockland Rockets at Community Park Sunday at 2.30.

Public Landing will be the center of all festival activities with the highlight coming with the special offer of the committee of two lobster for $1. Ten serving lines will be set up and another 10 held in readiness if needed. Local lobster dealers have capacities to boil well over 3000 pounds of lobsters every half hour, which should care for a small army of hungry people.

The parade committee, consisting of Ted Ladd and Ted Newcombe, assisted by the skilled showman, George Carr of Warren, is really lining up something good for the opening show of the festival. Several firms have already indicated that they will enter floats in the parade while others are deciding just what they will have for an entry.

The committees are all going in to high gear as the festival month opens and the affair is only 27 days away. All are bending every effort to make the festival the best of its kind ever held on the coast in an effort to inform the people of New England of the near-the-top position held by Rockland in the fishing industry.

Backers of the festival, financially and with a lot of hard work in helping lay out the affair are, Holmes Packing Company, Rackliff & Witham, F. J. O'Hara & Sons, Inc., Sim's Lobster Company, Green Island Packing Company, H. W. Look General Seafoods, Inc., The American Lobster Company, and Maine Coast Seafoods of Rockport.

The Queen of the festival may receive a trip to New York as one of her prizes, plus a two-day escorted tour of the city under the direction of the Maine Development Commission.

Chairman L. M. McCluskey, Warren, of the "Keep Maine Green" program has announced that the meeting scheduled for July 9 has been postponed to later in July.

Bean growers should be on the watch for the Mexican Bean Beetle which caused so much trouble and damage last season. Rottenone dust is probably the safest to use and will control the insect. Growers with dry beans can use calcium arsenate with copper lime dust in the proportion of 1-9. This dust is poisonous and should not be used on string beans.

Dr. Frank Lathrop of the Maine Experiment Station was in the county this past week working on Thrips control in Blueberries. He went over the fields of J. A. Pitman's in Appleton, and marked off demonstration plots where he will use various control measures. This insect is causing a great deal of damage in new burr.

A Silver Wedding

Dennisons' 25th Anniversary Observed By 125 Friends

One of the happiest social events in South Thomaston in many a day was the reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dennison June 23 to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Friends and relatives to the number of 125 gathered at the Grange hall, where Mr. and Mrs. Dennison greeted them beneath a floral arch. She wore a lovely corsage of red roses tied with silver ribbon, gift of her son Clayton.

The Dennisons were the recipients of many lovely gifts of flowers and silver, including a purse of $100. The hall was beautifully decorated with cut flowers. The happy affair was arranged by Mrs. Victoria Clement, assisted by Mrs. Elena Predette and Mrs. Mary Jordan.

An attractive program was presented including: Readings by Mrs. Effie Dyer, Ash Point and Mrs. Elizabeth Passon, Rockland; vocal solos by Mrs. Mildred Mills and Mrs. Victoria Clement, South Thomaston; piano solos by Mrs. Ella Watts and George Lilenthal of the South Thomaston and Mrs. Margaret Knowlton of Ingraham Hill. The program concluded with group singing following which adjournment was made to the dining room for refreshments which featured a handsome wedding cake made by Mrs. Mary Jordan, sister of Mrs. Dennison.

Going Along Fine

Less Than $200 Necessary To Send Gordon Williams To The Hospital

Little Gordon Williams of South Thomaston is assured of his operation which may give him an entirely new lease on life; thanks to the warm hearts and willing hands of his neighbors. The needed sum of $1500 is nearly reached this morning and the seven-year-old boy with the crippling "blue baby" heart condition leaves July 22 for Johns Hopkins Hospital where he will undergo surgery to correct the ailment which has plagued him during his brief lifetime.

The supper and dance at the "Keag" last night put the fund near the top with only $100 to $200 more needed. More than 250 persons attended the supper, which was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Martha Sleeper and co-chairman, Mrs. Elmer Godfrey.

Donations of food came from Ows Head, South Thomaston, Ash Point, Spruce Head, the Georges River Road section, and Rockland, to supply enough food free supplies to allow a considerable amount to be sold after the supper to swell the fund even more.

To date over 400 persons have donated to the fund in one way or another, according to Mrs. Arline Hopkins, Gordon's teacher and chairman of the South Thomaston Health Clinic which is sponsoring the drive.

The Rockland City Band gave a concert on the Grange lawn during and after the supper and Harvey's Orchestra donated its music for the dance.

Donations may be sent to Mrs. Hopkins to help put the fund completely over the top.

bridgework were a two-piece white shirtdress and a white skirt.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Jr. Their dining-room was lovely with a lace-covered table, all-white centerpiece, silver candlesticks and white tapers.

Mrs. John R. Ames dipped punch. Mrs. Robert Ames and Mrs. Oakley Ames served canapes and dainty sandwiches. The triple-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, was cut by the bride and groom, after which Mrs. William T. Smith completed serving it.

Guests were the immediate families of the couple.

The bride and bridegroom left on a wedding trip through the White Mountains and the Mohawk Trail. Following the trip they will be at home in Newburgh, N. Y.

Diamond Dust

That fine Rockland athlete, McLeelan, is an outstanding factor of the Maine Maritime Academy baseball team. Pitching against Bucksport Legionnaires Tuesday, he made two hits, one of which was a home run, with one aboard. The Mariners won, 14 to 6.

The third base bleachers at Community Park are still in the extraordinary condition, which leads patrons to wonder what was in the builders' minds.

Deliver us from any more foggy night games. When the outfielders are not discernable to the naked eye I wonder how they can see a batted ball. But somehow they did.

Watching the fine performance put up by the Thomaston team, Tuesday night it is easy to understand why that outfit is in first place, and recalling the erratic exhibition given by the Pirates, for the most part, it is also easy to understand it.

The feature play of Tuesday night's game was Tweedie's one hand shoestring catch in right field, made while running at full speed.

Warren fans got their money's worth Tuesday night when 38 players crossed home plate in seven innings.

The bride wore a pink gabardine suit with white accessories and white picture hat, with corsage of white gardenias and baby's breath tied with green and white ribbon. Miss Christine E. Ernest A. Munro, close friend of the bridegroom, was best man. They graduated from High School and the Maine Maritime Academy.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almon M. Young, 180 North Main street. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Marion Lindsey, 15 Laurel street and Fred C. Lindsey, 37 South Main street.

A reception was given at 7:30 p. m., by her parents at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Bellmore, Jr., 60 Crescent street with 70 guests present. Very Happy Affair

Warren Street Home Scene Of Golden Wedding, With 125 Present

Friends and relatives to the number of 125 journeyed to the Warren street home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Maxey Tuesday afternoon and evening for the happy purpose of extending congratulations and best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. They were the recipients of many lovely gifts, flowers and money.

The house was lovely with cut flowers, the luncheon table having a large bouquet of yellow tea roses and syringas as a centerpiece with white tapers. Mrs. C. Ernest Starr, Jr. of Warren cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Alfred Strout of Thomaston dipped punch, Mrs. Horace Maxey and Mrs. Otis Albee served with Mrs. Roger Rhoades in charge of the guest book.

Among the guests were seven who had attended the wedding including Roger Rhoades, George L. St. Clair, Mrs. Edwin B. Hall, Mrs. Emily Murray, Mrs. Rhoda Hamilton, Mrs. Augusta Maxey Holmes and Raymond Watts.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson and daughter Nancy from Weeks Mills had an added interest in the celebration because they were celebrating their 19th wedding anniversary.

Frank A. Maxey, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Maxey and Miss Laura J. Rhoades, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rhoades were married June 29, 1898 by Rev. Fred E. White of the Methodist Church. One son was born to them, Horace P. Maxey, prominent educator and at present Principal-elect of Scarborough High School. They have two grandchildren, David and Horace Maxey.

The Maxeys have been deeply interested in Masonic affairs, he having been high priest of King Solomon Temple Chapter and past master of Aurora Lodge. They are past matron and patron of Golden Rod Chapter, O.E.S.

By a pleasant coincidence, Mr. Maxey has recently observed 50 years of continued service with St. Clair & Allen, Rockland Candy manufacturers and wholesalers.

JOHNSON-YORK
Ernest Johan Johnson and Della Frances York of Fond-du-lac, Wis., were married June 23 at the First Baptist parsonage, Rev. Franklin Morse officiating at a double ring service.

The bride was clad in white and her corsage was white sweet peas and orchids. The matron of honor was Dorothy Lind, in a gown of pearl grey, white hat and a corsage of white sweet peas and red roses.

Harry Lind was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Wisconsin.

Oliver Hamlin is home from Veterans' Hospital, Texas, following several weeks' treatment.

Patrons Be Pleased

That's the Motto Of Camden Hills Theatre This Season

An interesting new ticket plan for Camden Hills Theatre will be in effect this year for the greater convenience of citizens in general, and Rockland in particular.

A special group of prominent Rockland citizens interested in the fine cultural work being done by the Hills Theatre and recognizing its value to the whole greater community will cooperate in the placing of the tickets. Season ticket buyers will be given a coupon which, when presented at the box office, will guarantee the holder the same seat assignment for each of the eight regular productions of the Camden Hills Theatre. This will be a most pleasant addition to theatre goers, removing every bothersome detail of theatre attendance. Buyers of coupons receive a 10 percent discount.

Should a patron prefer not having a definite seat assignment on a definite night of performance, they may use their coupons at any time, getting one seat for each performance or, any number of seats up to eight for one performance.

The box office this year will be in the lobby of the Camden Opera House, and will be open daily except Sunday from 10 a. m. to 12

Swimming Added To The Program—The Baseball League

The latest addition to the playground program will begin next Wednesday afternoon. A gala program is planned for the afternoon picnic. The group will leave Community Park at 1:30 and return from the excursion at 4:30. Facilities are being arranged at the lake and it is hoped that the newly built float will be ready for much use. The beginners' swimming classes will be started and for those who know how to swim advanced classes will be arranged.

The schedule for the swimming periods will be as follows: Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 1:30 to 4:30. The transportation to the lake will be by bus and the entire program will be under the direction of recreation director Mike DiRenzo. Mike is a YMCA senior life saver and has taught swimming for many years, putting in one season as life-guard at New York's famous Jones Beach.

All children of playground age are eligible for the trips and must have a note from their parents giving them permission to make the trips.

The area at the further end of the lake is being readied for the program and with the kind co-operation of Mr. MacIntosh who owns the property, the area has been made suitable for the children's picnics. No bath house facilities are available so the children will have to wear their swimming suits to the grounds. The entire program is to boost the number of swimmers to a maximum and to prevent many water mishaps that have claimed many lives.

Playground Baseball

The thrill that comes once in a lifetime—that's what happened to Albert Flanders Wednesday night. The young, colorful hurler pitched a no-hit, no-run ball game in the playground league. His teammates chipped in a barrage of hits to count 13 runs and send Christy Alex and his Al's Shavers down to defeat.

The win gave Studley Furniture a 500 average and put them within one-half game of the league leaders, Miller's Garage. Flanders had things completely in control throughout the game and sent two me down by the strikeout route. Christy Alex was the victim of poor support when his teammates committed nine errors.

The line score was as follows:

noon, and from 1:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. On production nights, Tuesday through Saturday, the box office will also be open evenings from 6:30 until after the second intermission.

The Rockland committee names will be announced in the near future by Chairman Almon B. Cooper.

Supt. Barker Tells Of the State Pauper Home In Jefferson

Kenneth Barker, superintendent of the State Pauper Home in Jefferson, was guest speaker at the Lions meeting Wednesday and gave an enlightening description of this little known institution. In the course of it he cited instances which bordered on the dramatic, and his half-hour talk was followed with keenest interest. He was introduced by Leon White.

The home was established in 1942 on land presented by the Federal Government. In the course of its seven years' existence 600 aged men have been enrolled there, 165 of whom have passed to the beyond. The average age of the inmates is 69.

These men enter the camp "down on their luck," and with their morale at a low ebb. They are provided with clean clothing, x-rayed, and examined for ailments. Their food is provided by excellent chefs and services of a physician are provided twice a week.

The gardens conducted in connection with the farm raise all of the vegetables used in the home, and the farm provides all of the pork. Between 3000 and 4000 No. 10 cans of vegetables are put up every Summer. And the farm was not even a garden spot when the institution came into being.

The home has a staff of five paid employees. The inmates are a happy crowd of men and there are no drunks among them.

President-elect Howard Crockett presided over the meeting, and will take his place at the helm next Thursday night when the installation of officers takes place. It will be a ladies night, and there will be a pleasing entertainment. Supper will be served in the Masonic dining hall at 7 o'clock.

"Megunticook River At Millville" Bought By Springfield Museum

The Springfield (Mass.) Museum recently purchased the watercolor "Megunticook River at Millville" painted by Eliot P. Beveridge to add to its permanent collection. This is the sixth Beveridge watercolor to be acquired by a museum.

Currently, an exhibit of Mr. Beveridge's pictures is on display at the Moyer Gallery in Hartford, Conn. The Walker Gallery of Art at Bowdoin College has an exhibit scheduled for the month of August. During the months of July and August, art classes will be conducted by Mr. Beveridge at his studio, 25 Mountain street, Camden.

Techniques in oil and watercolor, sketching, color theory, design, composition and perspective are included in various scheduled classes. Mr. Beveridge has the degrees of M.A. and Ed.M. from Harvard University and has had over 16 years' teaching experience. Further information regarding these classes may be obtained by writing to the studio.

SOUTH LIBERTY

Married Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Overlock celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Forest Tibbets at St. George Lake, Liberty. Mr. and Mrs. Overlock were married June 22, 1898, in Washington. They are the parents of four children, all of whom are living. Mr. Overlock, a successful farmer and business man, was born in this town, and his wife (Annie Leisher) in Washington. They have always made their home in this community.

A chicken dinner was served at noon, centered by a wedding cake with miniature bride and groom. The afternoon was spent in taking family pictures and general sociability. Boating was enjoyed on the lake.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Overlock, Robert and Merle Overlock, Ruth Boynton and Beulah Tibbets, their children; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Boynton, Norma, Lois and Eleanor Boynton, grandchildren; Rodney Boynton, Jr., and Darlene Boynton, great-grandchildren; Erma Knowlton and Forest Tibbets.

Mr. and Mrs. Overlock received a lovely bouquet of yellow roses, gifts of money and a shower of greeting cards from relatives and friends.

The wheat crop in Texas Oklahoma and Kansas this year is distinctly disappointing. About the first of May the Department of Agriculture estimated that the Texas crop would amount to 49,000,000 bushels; the figure for Oklahoma was set at 74,000,000 bushels, and for Kansas, 147,000,000. Grouping these States together that would mean a reduction of nearly 50 percent below the production of 1947.

SERMONETTE

Stand Fast In Faith

Sunday, June 20, was the first perfect day of Summer. The sea was as calm as you would often see in the warmest weather. The church was completely filled. It was recognized on day for our three great choirs.

The pastor asked if the organist and music director would prepare an entire service of Johann Sebastian Bach music. It was most impressive. Bach was undoubtedly the greatest master of the organ of all time. So profound was his religious faith that at 20 years of age he dedicated his entire life to God. He was born in 1685 and died in 1750 in Germany. The pastor's sermon was on "Bach and the Spirit of Unity."

The Baptist United Convention was held this past week in Ocean Park. Members and delegates present numbered 750. My memory swept back over the years to the time when your writer was president of United Baptist Convention of Maine, in this same octagonal structure. The acoustic properties are very fine. After the years the interest was more intense than ever I had witnessed from 1926 to this time.

I thought of St. Paul's words written to the Corinthians from Ephesus, probably in the beginning of the year 57 A. D.: "Watch, stand fast in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love."

As I looked at all those ministers, I am certain that so far as in them lies, they are following the Apostle's injunction.

Districts 41A and B comprise the State of Maine while 41C takes in the Maritime Provinces. Merson, speaking at the closing dinner, reported that three new clubs would be instituted shortly in Newfoundland at Pownallbrook, Gray's Falls and Gander, bringing to 23 the number of countries where Lionism is active.

Also addressing the group was Harold P. Nutter, Camden, N. J., who gave an over-all picture of the growth of Lionism and reported that International President Fred W. Smith, Ventura, Calif., has just returned from Europe and the U. N. sessions where he organized clubs in Geneva, Switzerland, and Stockholm, Sweden. The two clubs, he reported are the first organized in Europe.

During the afternoon a golf tournament was held and prizes awarded the winners. The Biddeford-Saco Club won the team prize.

Jaunty New Jeep

Manager Gilbert Tells What the Public Will See

The Jeepster, Willys-Overland's jaunty new touring model, now in mass production, will be shown on salesroom floors here next month according to O. A. Gilbert, manager of the Willys Sales Company. The local showing will occur simultaneously with the car's formal debut at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York.

The Jeepster, Mr. Gilbert said, is a phaeton with side wings, and a spare tire on the rear. It bears the familiar Jeep hood, and is powered with the four-cylinder Jeep engine with overdrive. Gas mileage is predicted at from 25 to 30 miles a gallon.

The low-slung model will be available in two colors—bright fiesta yellow and in a brilliant red. Steel supplies permitting, Willys-Overland expects to produce between 15,000 and 20,000 of the new models this year, Mr. Gilbert declared.

The Rotary Club

An Inventory Of Year's Activities Was Presented Friday

A fully attended Rotary meeting presided over by President Ken Crane listened to the reports of the chairmen of the various committees concerning the activities of the club for the year 1947-48.

Kelly Crie swung the baton for the singing and Staff Congdon did the honors at the piano.

A fine entertainment was promised for ladies' night at Samoset Hotel, Friday night, July 2.

During the year, the club has received 276 visiting Rotarians. Rotary spirit has been fostered by the good work of the members of the Fellowship committee. Under International the most important event was the leading of the trolley St. Patrick with the cargo for French fishermen and their families. Programs had been interesting and varied, especially so the members telling of the work of their classifications.

June 11, the Club had a membership attendance of 100 percent. Attendance for the year averaged 92 percent. The Rockland Club is first in attendance of those clubs in the District that have over 50 members.

Sergeants at Arms reported that an innovation for the year was the lighting of the flag, blowed out by a breeze during the sing of America; $4.25 in fines had been collected. Public Information was 100 percent in reporting the meeting of the Club.

The Club had regularly entertained two boys from the High School. Different boys for each month of the year. Christmas and Halloween parties had been successfully conducted.

Ed Brown confessed that the setting of biographies was hard work, members were modest, and even after life stories were obtained no one could be induced to read them.

Although Rotarians are lusty singers, steps are being taken to get a projector to flash the words of songs on a screen.

Four new members have been taken into Rotary this year. Four have left Rotary. Two members have died.

An effort is being made to have the park around the Community Building called Memorial Park in memory of our soldier dead, and a fountain installed. The Club has done much to help the grading of ball fields and park systems, and has given aid on all worthy drives for the collection of money.

Alain Bird, chairman of Indocritation, was absent. Ken Crane admitted that while trying to see the prize fight (postponed) he caught a glimpse of Al in the television hobbnobbing with Margaret Smith, as Mrs. Smith went to talk to the Maine delegates.

Visiting Rotarians were Ray C. Hopkins, Alexandria, Va.; W. L. Dickens, Camden; Franklin Perkins, Clinton, Mass.; Orrin C. Allen, city; Kenneth Dunham, Bangor; Lawrence Crane, Skowhegan.

This And That

By K. & F.

The Master's Questions

Have ye looked for sheep in the desert,
For those who have missed their way?
Have ye been in the wild waste places,
Where the lost and wandering stray?
Have ye trodden the lonely high-way,
The foul and darksome street?
It may be ye'd see in the gloaming
The print of My wounded feet.
Have ye folded home to your bosom
The trembling, neglected lamb,
And taught to the little lost one
The sound of the Shepherd's name?
Have ye searched for the poor and needy,
With no clothing, no home, no bread?
The Son of man was among them,
He had nowhere to lay His head.
Have ye carried the living water
To the parched and thirsty soul?
Have ye said to the sick and wounded,
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole?"
Have ye told my fainting children
Of the strength of the Father's hand?
Have ye guided the tottering footsteps
To the shore of the "Golden Land?"
Have ye stood by the sad and weary,
To smooth the pillow of death,
To comfort the sorrow-stricken,
And strengthen the feeble faith?
And have ye felt when the glory
Has streamed through the open door,
And flitted across the shadows,
That I had been there before?
Have ye wept with the broken-hearted
In their agony of woe?
Ye might hear Me whispering beside you
"This the pathway I often go!"
My disciples, My brethren, My friends,
Can ye dare to follow Me?
Then wherever the Master dwelleth,
There shall the servant be!

Doris Sylvester from the Rockland office has been substituting in the Boothbay Harbor office during the illness of Mabel Corey, and the party was her idea. She sent us an "invite" and we weren't long in taking her up on it. A very enjoyable evening.

Expect we will hear the Lions Roar in Waldoboro this year as Harold Gross is King Lion.

Doris Sylvester, while substituting in the Boothbay office, went smelting one night with Wolfe Dodge and Hugh Wagstaff. The boys furnished Doris with proper attire including hip boots, heavy coat and pants and it is reported that Doris rolled up her sleeves and really went to work. Anyway she caught four smelts, and had a wonderful time.

Our Next Governor

"Fred" Payne Has Led a Varied and Very Busy Existence

Frederick G. Payne of Waldoboro, winner of a five-man race for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, has packed a lot of different jobs into his 47 years.

He's been a newsboy, grocer's clerk, theatre usher, dish washer, teacher, accountant, theatre manager, mayor of Augusta, State finance Commissioner, Air Force fiscal officer and automobile dealer.

Victory in Monday's primaries crowned his second try for the gubernatorial nomination. He lost in 1940 to former Gov. Sumner Sewall.

Lewis O. Barrows, then governor, named him State budget officer and Sewall gave him the added responsibilities of State finance commissioner.

Payne held that job when he went to war in 1942. He served in Air Force budget and fiscal offices in Texas and Alabama, then as assistant chief of the same office in Washington, rising from captain to lieutenant colonel.

Born in Lewiston, Payne studied accounting at the Bentley School in Boston, then taught the subject in a Lewiston business college briefly.

At one time he was in charge of all disbursements by the Maine and New Hampshire Theatres Company—a job involving $10,000,000 a year.

DEATH OF SANFORD E. WELT

Sanford E. Welt, who gained fame as a violin maker, though he never played himself

The death Monday night of Sanford E. Welt marked the close of an unique career, and the passing of a man whose 36 years had marked the accumulation of many friendships.

The deceased was born in Waldoboro June 14, 1862. He came to Rockland 60 years ago with the reputation of being a crack revolver shot. Boyhood days spent in company with Big Thunder, an Indian Chief who had pitched his tepee on the banks of the Medomak, had made him proficient with a Smith & Wesson 22 calibre revolver, and at the same time made him expert with the bow and arrow.

Mr. Welt had come to Rockland in January almost totally unknown and doubtful himself if he would last through the winter. His shooting skill proved a good "ad" and his shop never lacked customers.

He continued in the barbering business 39 years and discontinued it because the death of his son Harold, at Camp Upton, N. Y., during the World War, caused him to lose his nerve and led him to take up the repairing and making of violins, which he had carried on as a side line. He got into the violin business because the "expert" who had repaired one of the instruments for him had failed to do a good job.

He repaired violins for a while and in 1910 made his first one. Never sold it and never wanted to because it was his first. An orchestra leader at the Farwell Opera House figured that it would be a bargain at $300, but the syndicate which had talked of buying it never carried its plans through.

"I never learned to play," he once told The Courier-Gazette reporter, "and I never knew a maker who could play. If a violin 'leaks' I can locate it by the tone when somebody plays."

Your Help Is Asked

Sixty Members Of Camden Hills Theatre Need Chairs, Tables, Etc.

Can you spare a chair, or a table, for the Summer? Straight chairs, easy chairs, lawn chairs, any kind of chairs; small, medium or large tables? A divan for the day-room?

The Camden Hills Theatre Company members are in residence at the former C.C.C. barracks at the Camden Hills State Park, but aside from the dining room tables and benches, and dormitory cots, the buildings are unfurnished. Any used furniture which could be loaned to the Theatricals for the Summer would be gratefully received by the 60 plus members of the company and staff. Chairs and tables are specially needed as the floor and ground are not too comfortable.

Last year several families in Camden loaned furniture, but this was returned at the end of the Summer to the owners.

Anyone who would be willing to donate used chairs, tables, etc., or would loan them for the Summer to the Camden Hills Theatre is urged to call Miss Helen McCobb at the Information Bureau at the Elm Street School, Tel. 8461, or Mrs. Ruth Buchanan, Camden Hills Theatre residence office, Tel. 8303. Members of the company will pick up the furniture, tag it with the owner's name, and return it at the end of the Summer.

Won't you look around, especially up in the attic, to see if you have some idle furniture you'd be willing to loan till September?

WASHINGTON AND YOU

By Margaret Chase Smith

Washington, June 30—Primary election in Maine is over. The results are known and I have returned to Washington to clean up my desk before taking a few days' vacation. I am most grateful for the thousands of friends who came to my support throughout the day, June 21. Our campaign was clean and fairly waged. The voting was heavy and early returns showed that the people had spoken in large numbers.

I felt very humble as I listened to the reports from all over the State. I never can express my appreciation for the many things that so many have done for me during the campaign. In fact, I shall probably never know what so many did do. This is the only regret I have in the entire campaign—that I cannot know how much all of you have done individually and that I cannot thank each and every one of you personally.

I shall be seeing some of you on my return to Maine but probably will not get around over the State until after the middle of August. I hope at that time to take a trip over the State and see as many as I can.

Congress adjourned June 19 and, while much was accomplished by the 80th Congress, I had hoped that we would recess and return after the two national political convention so as to complete work on bills already started, such as Federal Aid for Education, more adequate housing legislation, and others. It now appears that unless there is a war emergency, conventions and elections will be in order and all will be delayed until the new Congress returns in 1949.

As we adjourned I thought of my service in the House of Representatives for the past eight years—all of which I shall never forget. I can sincerely say that it has been a real pleasure to serve the people of the Second District, and I shall not forget my friends in the House who made it possible for me to accomplish what I have in the way of legislation because of their personal faith in me and what I proposed. I know those eight years of accumulated know-how, contact and position in Washington will be of inestimable value in the service I can give to the people of Maine in the Senate.

Since I came into office in 1940, Congress has been in session most of the time and I have continued these weekly reports without a break, but now that Congress has adjourned for the balance of the year and the purpose of the letter is to keep you informed on current issues, I feel that until after the September election or until I complete my plans for the future, I will discontinue these letters.

I have appreciated the way the newspapers have used this report and the response that has come from the readers.

After August 1 the office staff will be divided, half remaining in the Washington office, half at Skowhegan. Until that time even though there will be vacations, Room 231, House Office Building, will remain open with the Welcome sign on the door and business carried on as usual.
